synopsis:

John 3:16. Most of us learned this verse at a young age. We see it displayed at sporting events. We see it written on sidewalks. We see it headlined on pamphlets. But have we become numb to the message that is contained within these twenty-five words?

John 3:16. This verse declares hope for all. This verse tells of the mercy of God. This verse reminds us of our inadequacy, and yet promises us our reward. This verse is our testimony to the world. And thus, we must learn to fully appreciate the truth packed into this verse – one word at a time.

discussion questions:

- Has the world become numb to the message of John 3:16? Have you?
- When was the last time you shared this promise with someone else?
- What part of this promise do you have trouble believing?
