synopsis:

The Bible. The Word of God. The Book. It is not just a story, but rather THE Story. It tells of how and why mankind originally strayed from God's protection in the garden and how and why we all continue to stray from His protection today. But the Book also tells of the redemptive measures taken by God to restore His people.

There is no greater book. In it, we find the greatest Hero providing the greatest hope and demanding the greatest response. For when we believe the Bible, we are compelled to uphold its value to the world and live according to its truths.
